

Mark Sain Bio

Mark Sain is a lifelong resident of Milwaukee who graduated from Washington High School in 1977. Sain and his wife Charlotte are the proud parents of four daughters and five grandsons. The eldest grandson is a sixth grader at Carmen Northwest School in Milwaukee Public Schools.

Sain was raised in a single parent household and grew up on the north side of Milwaukee. As the youngest child in a family of six children, Sain learned from his older siblings and shaped the person he is today.

Sain graduated from the Carl Holmes Institute at Dillard University in New Orleans Louisiana.

He became a Firefighter in 1980 and retired after a stellar career in 2008. He held multiple positions from Firefighter up to 2nd in command as the Assistant Chief. As the Assistant Chief, Sain provided leadership to the 1,100 members of the Milwaukee Fire Department.

Sain has continued serving as an active member of the community. He sits on the Advisory Committee's of the Blood Center of Wisconsin, Cardinal Stritch University's College of Education and Leadership and is a Trustee of the Milwaukee Public Library.

Sain currently holds the position of 1st District School Board Director for the Milwaukee Public School System which represents the Northwest side of Milwaukee.

